Instructions

1. Start by stitching the outline of the goddess's face. Use two strands of black floss and stitch the outline using a backstitch.
2. Next, stitch the goddess's hair. Use two strands of brown floss and stitch the hair using a satin stitch.
3. Now, stitch the goddess's eyes. Use two strands of black floss and stitch the eyes using a French knot.
4. Next, stitch the goddess's mouth. Use two strands of red floss and stitch the mouth using a backstitch.
5. Now, stitch the goddess's dress. Use two strands of yellow floss and stitch the dress using a satin stitch.
6. Next, stitch the goddess's belt. Use two strands of gold floss and stitch the belt using a backstitch.
7. Now, stitch the goddess's wings. Use two strands of white floss and stitch the wings using a satin stitch.
8. Finally, stitch the goddess's flag. Use two strands of red, black, and gold floss and stitch the flag using a satin stitch.

Tips

- Use a sharp needle to avoid splitting the Aida cloth.
- Be sure to knot the ends of your floss to prevent it from coming undone.
- Take your time and enjoy the process of stitching this beautiful pattern.

This counted cross stitch pattern is a great way to celebrate the German Flag Goddess. The pattern is easy to follow and the finished product is a beautiful work of art.
