Jesus does not give up hope, however. He goes to the girl's house and finds her lying on a bed. He takes her by the hand and says, "Talitha koum!" which means "Little girl, I say to you, arise!"

And the girl gets up and walks around! Jairus and his wife are overjoyed, and they thank Jesus for healing their daughter.

The Healing Power of Jesus Christ

The Bible is full of stories about Jesus healing people. He healed the sick, the lame, the blind, and the deaf. He even raised people from the dead.

Jesus's healing power is still available today. He is the same yesterday, today, and forever. He is still able to heal our physical and spiritual wounds. All we need to do is ask.

How to Receive Healing from Jesus Christ
